Offers with this promise to his customers: leave mediocrity far behind – NOW !

- Music to move your body.
- Inspiration to move your mental mind.

- Joy to move your emotions.
- Wisdom to touch your soul.
- Trainings & Events to unite them all for maximum impact.

Clearly creative but utterly lost and at the verge of suicide he left his home country Sweden at the age of 23 in pursuit of a sense of meaning to life. 27 years later awakening came. And went after three hours. A fine and radical shift followed and since then the inner game, any psycho-systemic-soul-spirit stuff speeded up and lightened up immensely.

“Getting” from life diminished and “Giving” became focus. Soon it got clear that his job is to guide people to lighten up, specially creatives, likes artists and entrepreneurs.

... to form an Army of Rejoicers ...

In the years of “hardship” he studied history, cultural and communication sciences (Lund, Sweden and HdK / UdK Berlin) and got trained in stage performance, voice expression, dance therapy & mediation, integrative breath work, sex counseling, business & life coaching, matrix energetics and intuition & mediality. He is a recent graduate from 1) Ryan Eliason’s worldwide business training for socially conscious entrepreneurs, 2) Ken Wilber’s “Super Human Operating System” program and 3) Success Resources’ / Blair Singer’s “Train the Trainer”.

He is a certified Social Meditations Leader and a skilled group dynamics facilitator with 15 years of experience as a group leader for creative and transformational work. He is the initiator / founder of “TanzSpaß Köln”, Cologne’s first smoke free disco since the year 2000. The “barefoot boogie”-like dance party is today rocking stronger than ever. In 2012 he organized “LunchBeat Berlin” and got massive national and international media coverage (the main German media, Reuters. In US, Oprah Winfrey reported on the phenomena of Dancing your Lunch).

He has entertained a quarter of million people so far. His voice is used for radio and TV commercials in Swedish and German. He has committed the rest of his life to methods, systems and technologies that support life’s Greatness. His reverence and gratitude to the most influential teachers on that path: Osho, Veeresh, Cyrus, Thomas Hübl and Ken Wilber. The underlying quality of his life is a creative path of a spiritual warrior. He is an aspiring music producer and loves dancing.

Events, talks and workshops are offered from Summer 2015 and on. He says: “I love to speak and work with people on the issues Sex, Evolution and Spirit, I love it! They are so juicy. And the blend of them is true nectar. Come taste it!”

Passion for:

- Big enlightening Events.
- High impact sacred Entrepreneurship to be an integral contribution to humanity.
- Holistic Health; get body, emotions, mental, wealth, socio-cultural and global in balance.
- Teaching and Leading.
